

It is going to be impossible to effectively implement the Common Core Standards in my school district without the E-Rate funding for high-speed broadband for our school.